Suzuki Program
Violin/Viola/Cello/Piano

Beginners

Children may begin at age 3. Learning the methods of Dr. Shinichi Suzuki, students receive a 30-minute private lesson once a week focusing on technique and musicianship. All children enrolled in the Suzuki program are required to attend a 50 minute group class, which reinforces the private lesson material and introduces musical concepts such as rhythm, singing, listening skills and movement.

Beginner Parents must attend a 10-week parent course on Tuesdays from 6:00 pm to 7:00 pm, starting the 1st week of the term. This class prepares the parent for home teaching and introduces the Suzuki philosophy.

Tuition- $600.00 * Materials Fee- $65.00

Intermediate Students (Books I-III)

Having successfully completed the challenging beginning stages of instrumental study, your child continues to build their technique, musicianship and performance skills. Your teacher will recommend a 30 minute or 45 minute private lesson based on the student's skill level in the repertoire books. Students learn theory and aural skills (ear training) as part of their group lesson. Students of Books II-III may also register for optional classes. Workshops and master classes by guest artists are also offered to intermediate students.

30 minute lesson $510.00 * 45 minute lesson $630.00

Advanced Students

As the intensity of their study increases, students are required to practice at least one hour a day. Private lessons are at least once a week and include scale studies, etudes, traditional as well as Suzuki repertoire and performance opportunities. Group Class will review repertoire, technique and performance skills. Students are encouraged to register for the chamber ensemble class.

60 minute lesson $750.00

Practice Sessions

The quality of practice directly effects the student's progress and mastery of skills. At times, the home teacher may need support or may just need a break. Thirty minute practice sessions are scheduled as six or twelve week sessions scheduled at your convenience. Take advantage of this wonderful opportunity for tutoring when needed.

Six-$60.00 Twelve-$120.00
